

NOTICE TO THE MARKET

São Paulo, Brazil, March 4, 2010 – Companhia Brasileira de Distribuição (“Company”) hereby announces that its Board of Directors, pursuant to the resolution taken at its meeting on this date, approved the election of Enéas César Pestana Neto as Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and José Antônio Filippo as Chief Financial Officer (CFO). The position of Chief Operating Officer (COO) was extinguished.

The appointment of Enéas Pestana is in accordance with the succession plan defined by the Group and is designed to ensure the continuity of the advances in recent years. For Abilio Diniz, the Chairman of the Board, the new structure represents the conclusion of the work begun in 2003. “I am extremely satisfied and convinced that we have completed the task of professionalizing Grupo Pão de Açúcar. One of the reasons for hiring Claudio Galeazzi two years ago was to help prepare a CEO who came from inside the Company. We have successfully fulfilled this commitment and the transition is taking place in an absolutely smooth manner, as planned, and we are certain we have made the best choice. Our team and our Company are prepared for growth and fully equipped to do a better job as we move forward”.

Claudio Galeazzi will continue participating in and contributing to management, coordinating all Galeazzi & Associados’ projects with the Group, including the integration of Globex and Casas Bahia, as well handling the ZBB (Zero-based Budgeting) and the Matrix Expense Management projects, among others. He will also attend Board meetings as an invitee. Galeazzi believes the transition to be the evolution of the work carried out in the last two years and his participation in Board meetings is regarded as a more strategic role. “I am extremely pleased with the achievements of the Group and the entire team and I will have the opportunity of continuing to contribute through Galeazzi & Associados’ projects and my participation in Board Meetings”.

With the extinction of the COO position, the CEO will be directly responsible for: (i) four Vice-Presidencies, currently occupied by Claudia Elisa Soares, Hugo Bethlem, José Roberto Tambasco and Ramatis Rodrigues; (ii) the GPA Malls & Properties division, headed by Caio Mattar; and (iii) the Administrative and Financial area, now headed by José Antônio Filippo, who will be directly responsible for the accounting, controllership, tax, treasury, legal and investor relations areas..

The new structure underlines the confidence of Abilio Diniz, who sees the moment as one of opportunity. “We are capable of increasing all the gains generated until now, thereby contributing to the growth of the Group and the country as a whole. We will continue to create jobs, while offering the best products and services tailored for the different consumer profiles in all regions of Brazil”.

Enéas Pestana

Enéas Pestana has been with Grupo Pão de Açúcar since 2003. He has built an outstanding career in the administrative and financial areas of large retailers and companies such as GP Investimentos and Diagnósticos da América S/A. He has a degree in Accounting, with specialization in Leadership and Management at national and international institutions. In 2009, he received the O Equilibrista award as finance executive of the year from the São Paulo chapter of the IBEF (Brazilian Finance Executives Institute).

José Antônio Filippo

José Antônio Filippo graduated in Civil Engineering from the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro (UFRJ), with post-graduate studies at the Business and Management Institute (IAG) of the Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro (PUC), and specialization in management and leadership at the Brazilian Capital Market Institute (IBMEC) and Harvard Business School. He has occupied executive positions at GAFISA S.A., Reynolds LATASA and Ingersoll-Rand. His last position was Chief Financial and Investor Relations Officer at CPFL Energia, to which he was appointed in 2004.

Grupo Pão de Açúcar

A retail food pioneer in Brazil, Grupo Pão de Açúcar, which celebrated its 60th anniversary in 2008, is currently the country's leading retailer with more than 1,080 stores, including supermarkets, hypermarkets, gas stations and drugstores. With the recent joint venture signed with Casas Bahia, the Company will add a further 514 points of sale.

The Group's main objectives for 2010 are: expansion, especially in the Assai (wholesale/retail) chain and the Extra Fácil neighborhood stores; ensuring that same-store sales growth outpaces inflation; maintenance of the expense control program already in place; generating greater efficiency gains; improving the return on invested capital; and consolidating the Company's meritocratic culture.

The Group operates in 18 states in all regions of Brazil and in the Federal District, with a total sales area of 1.7 million m² and a workforce of 80,000. By uniting with Casas Bahia, it will become the largest private employer in the country, with more than 140,000 employees.

In order to consolidate its market position and meet consumers' varying needs and expectations, the Company maintains a multiformat structure, comprising supermarkets (Pão de Açúcar, Extra, CompreBem and Sendas), hypermarkets (Extra), durable consumer goods stores (Ponto Frio, Extra-Eleto), convenience stores (Extra Fácil) and wholesale/retail outlets (Assai Atacadista). The Company also maintains e-commerce food operations, through www.paodeacucar.com.br, and non-food operations, through www.extra.com.br and www.pontofrio.com.br. The joint venture with Casas Bahia will also include the e-commerce website www.casasbahia.com.br.

Grupo Pão de Açúcar's shares have been listed on the Bovespa since October 1995 and on the NYSE (level III ADR) since May 1997. In 2009, the Group recorded gross sales of R$ 26 billion (including the consolidation of Ponto Frio's sales in the second half of 2009).

Investor Relations Officer
Daniela Sabbag